Trudie Styler

Owner

Trudie Styler is an actress, film producer, director, human rights activist, environmentalist, organic farmer and Unicef Ambassador. In 1989, along with her husband Sting, Trudie started the Rainforest Foundation (now Rainforest Fund), an organization devoted to protecting rainforests and their indigenous peoples. Her efforts over the years have aided in expanding the project over four continents.

Trudie's charitable works for human rights and the environment have been recognized by many award-giving bodies. She was "Outstanding Woman Environmentalist by the Center for Environmental Education", and The Humanitarian Award (1995) from the Hospitality Committee for the United Nations delegations; As an Ambassador for UNICEF, Trudie has been responsible for fund raising programmes, and remains committed to working to improve the lives of impoverished and exploited children all over the world.

From the mid-1500s Il Palagio has harvested, fermented and bottled its own wines. In 1999, Trudie and Sting acquired the estate and have gone to great lengths to keep the tradition alive. Using organic farming methods, they have replanted 11 hectares of vineyards since 2000. Resulting in four beautiful reds: Message in a Bottle, Casino delle Vie, Sister Moon and When We Dance.

"It's such an important time in history for women in general and a very exciting time for women in this industry. WoW provides a tremendous opportunity for all of us to learn from each other and share in the experiences of fellow winemakers. I am very honored to be invited to showcase my wines in Hong Kong."
