TASTING LIST

ATA RANGI

Helen Masters

Winemaker

Helen Masters has been in charge of production at Ata Rangi for over 15 years. As well as crafting fine wines of consistent international acclaim, she is actively involved in the continual pursuit of excellence in the vineyards, and driving Ata

Rangi's ISO14001 environmental management systems and organic certification. Helen also supports the wine community locally and nationally as a member of the region's winegrowers body and on the board of Pinot Noir 2017.

SUSANA BALBO WINES

Susana Balbo

President and Owner

After graduating cum laude with a degree in Enology in 1981, Susana Balbo became the first female winemaker in Argentina's history. With a 30-year career in the wine industry, Susana Balbo is certainly the most well-known female Argentinian winemaker, within the country and abroad. In 2012 she was the only Argentinian named among the '50 Most Powerful Women in the Wine World' by the British magazine Drinks Business. In 2015, she was awarded 'Woman of the Year 2015' by the same magazine.

Today, Susana Balbo is the owner and chief winemaker of Susana Balbo Wines in Mendoza. Moreover, she is a National Congresswoman and in 2017 was elected by the President of Argentina to be part of the W20.

"To have your own freedom to produce your own wine, this is the most fascinating freedom you can have as a winemaker."

In my life I realized when you want to change things, you must be involved you must be involved.

What I learned is that it doesn't matter what happens around you, you must have focus."
